50. Memoriams

Was it three years ago or was it yesterday -
The Lord reached down, an took my friend away.
There's a master blueprint somewhere in the sky,
It tells when we will be born and when we shall die.
So I'll just go on thru life and be as good as I can be.
For I have a special angel smiling down on me.
No longer do I have to dread the crossing of the stand for I know you'll be waiting to take me by the hand.
And our precious Savior will hed all sorrows flee and there will be rejoicing when you're again with me.

in Memory of
Rhoda Kay Eagle
by Hane Eagle Bailey
50/2-1-1tp

In loving memory of Lillian Drinkard Martin on her 83rd birthday, February 3. We can't say Happy Birthday,
The way we used to do,
With cake and candles and presents;
Those joys we buried with you.
An eternity's not measured,
On earth's light scale of years;
But here, on our hearts' calendar,
Today her's ringed with tears.

With Love,
Your children and grandchildren
50/2-1-1tc

Willie E. Roland, Jr. who passed away one year ago today, February 5, 1983.
The month of February
once more is here.
The saddest month of all
the year,
For just one year ago today,
The one we loved was taken away.
God knows how much we miss you.
Never shall your memory fade,
Loving thoughts will ever wonder.

A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a loneliness the world can never fill.
A thousand times we're missed you.
A thousand times we're cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place that no one else can fill.
If we could have one life time wish that could come true,
We would wish with all our hearts for yesterday and you.

Sadly missed by
Wife, Mother, Sisters,
Brothers, and Friends

LEGAL NOTICE
The Central Virginia Commission on Aging proposes to improve its existing transportation service for the elderly and handicapped residents of the Central Virginia area, which includes the Counties of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Campbell and the Cities of Bedford and Lynchburg. The service improvements will include two (2) fifteen passenger vans.
The transportation program provides demand responsive and fixed route service to essential community services and daily transportation of elderly persons to and from nutrition centers.
Federal funds are being requested from Urban Mass Transportation Administration under Section 16 (b) (2) of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, as amended, to purchase aforementioned equipment.
We invite any interested public or private transit or paratransit operator within the Central Virginia area to comment on the proposed service improvements by sending a written notice within 30 days to Jayne B. Crowder, Public Transportation Division, Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation, 1221 East Broad Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, and to Central Virginia Commission on Aging, 2820 Linkhorne Drive, Lynchburg, Virginia 24503. 80/2-1-1tc

Draft registration increases

During the last four months of 1983, 18-year-old men headed to the post office in greater numbers to register with Selective Service. Three major world events - the downing of the Korean jetliner, the bombing of the Marine headquarters in Beirut, and the invasion of Grenada - can partially explain the increase in registrations.

To date 11.3 million men have registered with Selective Service. Approximately 98.6 of the draft eligibles (men born in 1960-1964) have registered.

Alaska, Wyoming, Nevada, and Florida are the highest ranking states in the country with compliance rates at 100 percent.

Ohio and Washington are at the median level with compliance rates of 99 percent each. California is the lowest ranking state with a rate of 89 percent. Other examples are Montana 98 percent, Georgia 97 percent, Alabama 98 percent, and Vermont 98 percent.

Virginia's young men born in the years 1960-1964 have a compliance rate of 99.19 percent, which ranks Virginia 23 in the country. COL Thomas A. Johnson, Virginia State Director, stated that, "this increase in registration shows me that young men today love their country and are willing to accept the responsibilities that living here entails. Over 11 million young men have registered so far and I'm very proud of those who are Virginia citizens."

The compliance rate for year of birth 1965 is only 92 percent which indicates that many of those currently reaching their 18th birthday have not registered on time. They should comply with this federal law immediately.

Young men born in 1960 and later years must register within 30 days of their 18th birthday. At this time a man must register with Selective Service to receive federal student aid and job training benefits.

Registration. It's quick. It's easy. And it's the law.

Spout Spring man is charged after accident

A Spout Spring man was charged with second degree murder last week following a fatal accident near Oakville on the night of Jan. 21.

Perry Lee Lydelle, Jr., 26, is scheduled to appear in general district court on Feb. 15 for a preliminary hearing on the second degree murder charge.

Lydelle was charged in connection with a head-on automobile crash near midnight Sunday, Jan. 21 on Route 26 six miles north of Appomattox.

A 42-year old Buena Vista woman, Emily C. Tomlin, died in that collision. State Police say Lydelle was driving the pickup truck which collided with Mrs. Tomlin's vehicle.

Police say that the truck was travelling south in the northbound lane of Route 26.

Board to meet for budget discussion

The Appomattox County School Board will meet Thursday, Feb. 2, for a Budget Work Session.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 a.m. in the School Board Office on Main Street.
